MAGNET PADS

Make plans and lists more attractive on our jOTBLOCK magnet pads.

A superstrong embedded magnet holds an included pen to the pad, while simultaneously holding the pad to fridges, filing cabinets, lockers, and other metal surfaces. Sheets tear off easily at a perforation below the magnet, allowing the magnetic function to be maintained throughout the life of the pad.

new! Long pads have 65 printed sheets for plans and lists. Available in 3 styles:

to get shopping list pad has fine lines and checkboxes. Printed in aqua with a box pattern accent at top.

70141

week of planner pad helps schedule your week. Printed in berry with a striped pattern accent at top.

70142

to-do pad has fine lines and checkboxes. Printed in deep blue with a dotted pattern accent at top.

new! Edgy pads have 65 printed sheets and feature bright colors along all 4 edges. Available in 3 styles:

blank/notes pad has an open space for doodles and a lined part for notes. A perforation between them allows for easy separation. With bright papaya edges.

70150

weekly/list pad helps plan schedules and meals on the weekly side, and shopping and tasks on the list side. Separates at a center perforation. With bright aqua edges.

70151

dotted grid pad helps guide your plans and lists bullet-journal style. With bright berry edges.

Oblong pads have a distinctive rounded shape and include 40 unprinted sheets.

hitched™ linked photo clips exhibit snapshots and art in style.

Dual-sided geometric shapes and sleek finishes are visually interesting without detracting from the pictures they securely hold. Delicately strong clips attach to photos to form a chain, a curtain, or hang individually, taking collections from shoebox to gallery-worthy installation. Photos and art easily slip in and out, making hitched™ a dynamic display solution.

41121 marble and rose gold s/3

Give your photos, placeholders, and name cards a lift with our new polyHEDRA photo+card stands.

These additions to our polyhedra line incorporate the same tetrahedron, octahedron, and icosahedron shapes. Easy to use, these elegant displayers are formed from a single wire and won't damage photos. Perfect for special occasions... or for making ordinary occasions special! Available in matte black with silver wire, and matte marble with copper wire.

polyHEDRA™ OBJECTS

Achieve your objective with our polyHEDRA objects collections!

Each mathematically proportionate form, available in matte magnetic marble and glossy clear blue resin, adds an artful dimension to enhance any décor. The magnetic marble series attracts clips, pins, and other small metal supplies with hidden magnets. The sparkling water series reflects graduated clear blue tones onto shelves and tabletops.

Magnetic marble series objects are available in a small trio, and two large individual shapes.

Water series objects are sold in large individual shapes.

Post without puncture!

Display photos, cards, notes, artwork and more on these metal magnet boards. With a versatile long thin proportion, magnetic strip bulletin boards can be installed vertically or horizontally. Strong magnets make display changes easy and will not damage precious keepsakes.

Designed in 2001, our classic strips were the world's first bulletin boards to replace push pins with magnets, and they popularized the magnet board category as it's known today.

All boards packaged in a clear peggable bag. Magnets and mounting hardware included.
